

Courtesy of the Boston Public Library, Print Department

1799: Bostonians celebrate the birthday of President John Adams with festivities on the Common.

The Friends of the Public Garden proudly announce the publication of the first pictorial history of America's oldest park

BOSTON COMMON

- The Common's fascinating story from its founding in 1634 until the present day, reflecting the course of American history
- A remarkable collection of images assembled by the Friends from private collections and a dozen public and private archives and libraries
- 200 images — many never published before — from primitive works of art to lithographs and engravings and through 150 years of photography
- An educational and entertaining volume, and a perfect gift for anyone who loves Boston

Published by Arcadia as part of its Images of America series, the book will be sold both in bookstores and through the Friends of the Public Garden for $20. The Friends will receive an 8% royalty on retail sales and a 50% profit on direct sales. All proceeds will be dedicated to the Common Tree Fund.

ORDER FORM

Name _____ Phone Number _____

Mailing address: _____

Please send me _____ copies of Boston Common at $20 each. (Add $3 per copy for postage and handling)

Total enclosed: $ _____

Please mail your check payable to the Friends of the Public Garden, 87 Mount Vernon Street, Boston, MA 02108.

THANK YOU!